B. F. Roden was reared upon a farm, and received the early education that the schools of that period afforded. He was among the first to enter the Confederate service in 1861, and continued during the entire war period.

He first became a member of Company G, Twenty-seventh Alabama Infantry, which was subsequently formed into the Thirty-first, and soon after consolidated and made the Forty-ninth Infantry, serving in Polk's army, Breckinridge's Kentucky Brigade and Division. At the battle of Shiloh he was severely wounded by a musket ball, which shattered the knee joint, which forced him to resign from active service, and he was assigned to the commissary department, where he remained until the close of the war. After the close of hostilities Mr. Roden migrated to Texas, and for over two years attended McKenzie's College, and subsequently, for two years, was a teacher in the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory.

Returning to Alabama he entered the mercantile trade at Gadsden, under the firm name of Latham & Roden, where he remained four years.

In 1871 Mr. Roden came to Birmingham, where he has been engaged in active business ever since, and has assisted, to a large extent, in building up the business portion of the town, and also various public corporations and enterprises. One of the finest business blocks in the city bears his name. It is on the corner of Second Avenue and Twentieth Street, is three stories high, built of pressed brick, and handsomely trimmed with stone. The lower floor is occupied by Mr. Roden as a grocery, and the Birmingham National Bank. The second floor is occupied by offices, and the third floor as bedrooms.

Mr. Roden devotes his time chiefly to the various corporations with which he is connected. He is the founder and president of the Avondale Land Company; is one of the founders of the Birmingham Gas and Electric Light Company, of which he is vice-president, general manager and treasurer; is one of the founders of the Birmingham Chain Works, and is president of the Birmingham Insurance Company. He is also one of the directors of the Alabama National Bank, and a large investor in real estate.

Mr. Roden served as alderman during the first ten trying years of the history of Birmingham, and was the founder and president of the first street railroad.

In 1872 he married Miss Ella Didlake, of Perry County, Alabama. They have five children—Viola H., Florence L., Lillian, Mabelle, and Benjamin F., Jr.

J. H. Bankhead was born in Marion County, Alabama, September 13, 1842. His father, James G. Bankhead, was a Virginian, but settled in Marion County in 1818, and lived there until his death, in 1861. His mother, Susan Hollis, came from Darlington District, South Carolina, to the same portion of the State in 1822, and is now living with her son.

There were three sons and one daughter born to them, and all of them are living in the Sixth Congressional District of Alabama, of which he is to be the representative in the Fiftieth Congress.

Young Bankhead spent all his life prior to the war on his father's farm, and worked and went to school alternately. He remembers vividly plowing with the proverbially contrary mule.

When the war came on he entered Company K, Sixteenth Alabama Regiment of Infantry, commanded by Captain J. B. Powers, and the regiment by Colonel W. B. Wood, now Judge Wood, of Florence. He enlisted as a private. He was in the struggle from beginning to end, and took part in the battles of Fishing Creek, Perryville, Murfreesboro, Shiloh, Chickamauga, Atlanta, Franklin, and all the principal battles of the Western Army. After the battle of Fishing Creek he was promoted to third lieutenant, and captain after the battle of Shiloh. He was wounded three times.

After the war Captain Bankhead engaged in farming on his home place.

He represented his county in the lower house of the legislature in the session of 1865-66, which was the first session held after the war. He took an active part in carving out the new county of Lamar, from Marion. He was in the State Senate from the Twelfth Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Lamar, Franklin, Fayette, and Marion, in the session of the general assembly of 1877.

In 1881 he was appointed warden of the penitentiary and held the office four years.

It was in 1882 that Captain Bankhead first became interested in Birmingham, and he has since then greatly increased his possessions in the city.

In 1883 he became associated with Colonel J. F. B. Jackson and others in the manufacture of lime and lumber at Blount Springs, and held his possessions there with the others of the company until February, 1887, and then sold out, with considerable pecuniary advantage.

Captain Bankhead was the originator, and took an important part in organizing the Birmingham Chain Works. He is also a stockholder, and maintains important relations to the Watts Coal and Coke Company; Birmingham Real Estate and Investment Company, and the Sipsey River Coal Company. The last named owns 20,000 acres, among the finest and richest coal lands in the State, and while they are already very valuable, they are destined to grow far more so; in all of these important corporations Captain Bankhead has given evidence of great business tact and capacity, and has grown wealthy with them.

Captain Bankhead was nominated by the Democratic convention of the Sixth Congressional District at Fayette Court House, September 3, 1886, to represent the district in the Fiftieth Congress, and was elected in November following. His friends warmly rejoiced in his elevation to the office, and do not doubt that he will make an acceptable and capable member.

Captain Bankhead was married November 13, 1866, to Miss Tallulah, daughter of James Brockman, of Wetumpka. She is also the granddaughter of the distinguished Col. Thomas P. Brockman, of South Carolina. Five children have been born to them—Louise B., Marie S., John H., Jr., Henry M., and Mason.

Captain Bankhead stands high as a Mason, and has served as Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Alabama.

All the members of his family are Methodists.

of Henry Purdy & Jas. Richey, Sr. The same data is in the family of Mrs. Leila Richey Mize of Athens, Ga. & Leonard Andrea of Columbia, S.C. The Bible in which this record is found was published in Edinburgh, Scotland in 1793, printed by Mark & Charles Kerr, His Majesty's Printers. It has the King's coat-of-arms above the place and the printers' names. Above that, it says, "The New Testament of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, translated from the original Greek, and with the former translations diligently compared and revised by His Majesty's Special Command. Appointed to be read in churches."] of another Bible was sent to the Pension Bureau in Washington in 1843 by Agnes Purdy when she applied for pension on Henry Purdy's Rev. War service. This has the exact information as the Bible quoted above, but it has only the births and marriage of Henry Purdy & Agnes Richey. Agnes Richey was variously called Agnes and Nancy. In the pension papers she is called Nancy. Henry Purdy was almost certainly born in Md. He was the first school teacher in Abbeville Dist. Nancy Agnes Richey was b. in Amelia Co., Va., dau.

Mrs. Zola S. Hardy, 1217 Rice Ranch Rd., Santa Maria, Calif. 93454, said her third great grandfather, John Huckabay died in Marion County, Ga. leaving a wife, Elizabeth Moore and children. His perishable property was sold Feb. 26, 1844. Does anyone know when he died and when and where he was born? She thinks he moved from S.C. to Wilkes or Walton Counties, Ga. His administrator was WILLIAM HOLLIS and guardian of a minor daughter was William B. Hardison.

Thomas

Dane

1850 Harris Co., GA listed JOSEPH HOLLIS, and JAMES HOLLIS families. Early 1840, a Methodist church was built in Monroe Co., GA on land near J.M. HOLLIS. Is there a connection in these families? JOHN WESLEY HOLLIS was a direct ancestor, great great grandfather.

Moses Hollis thought to have married 3 times; second to BETTY, then to MARTHA or NANCY. In 1889 one NANCY HOLLIS d. at an old age leaving ELYAH V. her administrator, naming Elyah V., MOSES K., E.P. SLAY, ELSA PHALEN, RILLA JONES.

Served as trumpeter in Capt. James McMahan's company, volunteer from Williamson County; was prisoner of war for 40 days. Born 1780 in S. C., death not known; he is believed to be buried in an unmarked grave in Jones Cemetery near Santa Fe. He married Ann Barnett, born 1777 in S. C., death not known.

Children of Eli Hope:

1. Rebecca A. Dodson, born 25 May 1816 in Williamson County, died 5 June 1898 according to tombstone; married James E. Dodson. (Maury Democrat, 14 Jan. 1892, says Rebecca A. Dodson, 74, has died.) She is said to be his only child. However the 1820 census of Maury County shows three males and three females in his household who could be his children. Mary J. Hope, born 1820, died 1884, is buried in the Jones Cemetery and is possibly his daughter.

LANE — Mrs. Richard L. Jordan, 3118 Cofer Rd., Falls Church, Va. 22042 asks if there is a history of club feet in any LANE family in N.C., S.C., Ga., Md., N.J., Pa., or Virginia?

MARY LANE, b. 1804 in Va., m. 1st 8-3-1834 in Ross Co., Ohio, WILLIAM TAGG, and 2nd 10-22-1839 in the same county, DAVID B. STANFCLIFF, 3rd in the same county in 1850 JESSE HOLLIS. Two of her three husbands were shoemakers!

Was Mary the dau. of BARTHOLOMEW LAND and ELIZABETH ALLEN of Monroe Co., Va.? Was Jesse Hollis b. 1790 Va. of Fauquier or Hampshire Cos.?

EDITOR'S NOTE: Now that is some question! I'll be nearly as interested in the answer as you, Mrs. Jordan. I've a distant Lane line from the Raleigh, N.C. Lane family, and true there have been some partial club feet in some branches in my generation sharing Moss-Lane-Luckie blood. I have never heard, nor read, of club feet in earlier generations up this family tree, however.

Dear Mrs. Strickland:

"Somewhere" I picked up the info that "you are interested in David Hollis who married Delia."

My great-grandmother, Mary Elizabeth (^{nee} Terrell) Wynne married, for the second time after her husband's death, a "David Hollis" in Madisonville on 2 July 1887.

I just wondered if it could possibly be the same "David Hollis".

My dear 2nd Strickland:

Thank you ever so much for your kind letter of July 23. I was quite surprised to see the postmark, "Pascagoula."

I really do appreciate the info on David Hollis - I am sure this is the same David. He was 28 when he married my ^{gr-} grandmother & she was only 41 - they were married a little over a year when he died.

Thank you also, for the names of the people working on the Hollis family - I called the lady ^{here} in S.A., Mrs. Gucker, but she didn't seem to be especially interested in David - she is looking for a "Jesse Hollis."

If you will let me know who you are searching for in particular, I would be happy to keep my eyes open for you - I know you are interested in Adams & Strickland, but what about your family names?

I am also working on: Wynne, Terrell,
Zorgan, Ellzey, Glass, Savell & Hartman.
Just wish I had more time - I am a full time secretary - wife - grandmother.
Four grandchildren spent the hite last nite -

Again Thank you for sharing. I am enclosing a copy of ^{two} family sheets for my Mollie Hollis.

Dear Ms. Cannon:

Thank you for the information on David Hollis. I really appreciated it. It really helped me a lot.

I looked through every bit of Hollis information I had collected and could not find a David who married Anna M. Cannon or the one who married J. R. Horn.

Have you ever corresponded with Mrs. D. S. Hooker, 315 Kendalia, San Antonio, TX 78214? She is researching the Hollis family. Her great, great grandfather was Thomas James Hollis, Sr. born in Augusta County, Virginia in 1756. Brothers of Thomas James Hollis were David, James and Jesse of Rutherford County, TN (1820). She has quite a bit of information on the family and might have something that would help you. She is very nice to share information.

Thanks again and, if in my search, I find anything on your line will send it right away. When I am researching I copy every Hollis I find and then sort it out after I get home.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Jean Strickland

San Antonio, TX 78231

Dear Mrs. Riley:

Just received your letter which was forwarded to me from Monahans, TX.
We moved to Florida in October 1977.

Yes I believe your David Hollis is probably the same one that I am interested in for I have definite proof that he moved to Madisonville when he sold my great grandfather Adams his headright grant in Walker County. (This land is actually in San Jacinto County, TX now but San Jacinto was not formed until 1880) The Deed record reads as follows:

Walker County, Texas. Book of Deeds Record E.
David Hollis and wife Delia Hollis of Madison County, Texas for $400. to L. Adams (my great grandfather) of Walker County, a part of my headright containing 253 acres and 3/10, certificate no. 68 issued by the Land Commissioners Board of Robertson County July 3, 1843 situated in Montgomery District, Walker County, on the waters of Winters Bayou. Signed by C. D. Hollis, H. Strickling witnesses. January 12, 1879.

In the above references where I say my great grandfather - I mean to say "my husband's great grandfather". The H. Strickling who witnessed the deed was my husband's grandfather Henry Strickland. Henry Strickland married Catherine Adams, daughter of L. Adams in the above deed.

David Hollis came to Texas early. He served under Captain Richard Williams in the Somervill Campaign in 1841.

Mrs. Pearl Weaver Bosworth, 426 N. Hampton, Dallas, Texas 75208 joined the Daughters of the Republic of Texas on David Hollis. According to her he was born 2-6-1809 in Madison County, Ky. Married 1833 in Murphreesboro, Rutherford County, TN to Delia Walker. She was born in Virginia 1-8-1812. David died August 18, 1888 near Madisonville, TX Buried Rock Prairie Cemetery, Madison County, TX.

Mrs. Robert C. Hocker, 315 Kendalia, San Antonio, TX 78214 is working on this line also.

Mrs. Maxine Williamson Cannon, 1005 N. May, Madisonville, TX 77864 is also working on this line. She sent me a group sheet on David and Delia. It does not show a second marriage but that does not mean that there was none. It reads as follows:

David Hollis b. 2-6-1809, Madison County, Ky.
married November 26, 1833 Rutherford County, TN died August 18, 1888, Madison County, TX. buried Rock prairie Cemetery
Madison County, TX.

His father: David Hollis Mother: Elizabeth Lewis.

His wife: Delina Walker born Jan. 8, 1812 in Virginia died 1-7-1883, Madison County, TX. buried Rock Prairie Cemetery
Madison County, TX.

Dear Mrs. Riley:

Am so glad I had the right David Hollis for you and thanks for your good offer to look for my names when you are researching. I know what you mean when you say you are a full time secretary, wife and grandmother. Me too! On top of that we lie next door to my widowed mother who is 79 and her mind is getting worse by the day.

I just wish I had more time to spend on my genealogy, but just can't seem to quit working yet. I did stay home for three months and didn't like it nearly as well as I thought I would. Didn't seem to have nearly as much get up and go as I do when I am working.

My husband and I both like genealogy. We went to Jackson, Mississippi a couple of week ends ago to the Archives there to do some research. Really did enjoy it.

We are working on Henry Strickland who is my husband's grandfather. We have searched for 20 years and still do not know who Henry's parents were. He was born somewhere in Mississippi in 1841 or 1842. We are also working on the Glasco's in Tennessee and Texas, Earp's in Alabama and Texas, Adams in Alabama and Mississippi and Texas, but the name that I have the least on is in my family and it is DIMMICK. I would be grateful for any information on that family. It is such an uncommon name that if you ever see it please copy or tell me where I can find it. It was my maiden name.

You mention that you are working on the Morgans - if they were ever in Alabama, Genevieve Goodpasture, 2307 Terrace Avenue, Victoria, Tex. 77901 may have something on them as they are a part of her family.

Thanks again and good hunting,

Sincerely,

20 Nov. 1977

Dear Mrs Strickland:

Recently I found some information on the Hollis family that could help in your research about David Hollis. Read your query in March Issue 1976 to the Miss. Gen. & local History magazine. That has been sometime ago - at the time I did not have all the information I have now.

Thomas Hollis b. Haywood Co. Tenn 24 Sept. 1799
m. Prudence Armstrong b. ✓ ✓ ✓ 12 June 1801 on; 1 Jan. 1826

children:

1. Thomas Lafayette b. 3 Nov. 1826 Tenn.
2. Martha Washington b. 29 Mar. 1829 ✓
3. Crockett b. 30 Mar. 1831 ✓
4. Jesse (ie) b. 23 June 1833 ✓ ^{went back to Tenn}
✓ ^{now to Tex.}
5. Selthia b. 11 April 1836 ✓
6. Sara ^{Jane} ~~Jane~~ b. 9 July 1838 ✓
7. Martin Van Buren b. 1 Sept. 1840 ✓
8. Alexander b. 7 Sept 1843 Miss.

No one in the family ever heard from Jesse Hollis ^{it} ~~he~~ ^{was assumed} ~~was presumed~~ he had died, after he left Miss.

When Alexander died in 1923 all the brothers or sisters were left a part of his estate. There was an amendment to the Will when a son of Jesse came to Calhoun County Miss to claim his father's share after the Will had been settled. In that amenc^{ment} his name is given & that information will be reaching me in the next few weeks I hope.

Thomas Hollis & Prudence Armstrong are my great great grandparents. Their oldest daughter Martha W.
m. Jefferson Byrd Davis & are my great grandparents
My grandmother was Martha W. Davis who m. Robert Lafayette Sharp.

I am sure this is Jessie's son - I hope it is David.
If you have not found him yet. I know how distressing it can be to find ancestors; especially when all they did was move from county to county & from state to state.
Still have Hollis Cousins in Calhoun Co. Miss, as well as in Wayne County, Tenn.

If you are interested in the rest of the information I have on the Hollis & Armstrong family I shall be happy to send you what I have.

26 Dec 1999

Dear Mrs Strickland:

Read your letter with a great deal of interest. Boy! what a change you made from West Texas to Florida - how do you like it?

I found in the 1820 census of Rutherford County Tenn. the following:

	MALES	FEMALES
David Hollis	312201	20001	Rutherford Co,
James Hollis	2001000	10010	Sumner Co.
Jesse Hollis	210110	31010	✓

We are fairly certain the the above were our great great grandfather's brothers - he was Thomas. James Hollis Sr. was born in Augusta Co. Va. in 1756. His father was Isaac Hollis - tho' we cannot find proof of this.

James Hollis Sr. & his whole family moved to Wayne County Tenn. in 1804. There were 7 boys, 1 girl in the above family. James Jr., William, John, Thomas listed as heads of households in 1830 census of Tenn. also David & Jessie - we do not know the name of the 7th son or the daughter. It is possible they moved from Kentucky to Tenn. The other son, ^{could be} Joseph.

When my great grand-ma's brother, ^{Jesse} went to Texas it must have been around 1858-60 - he went back to Wayne Co. Tenn. after his father died in 1849 - he must have been 18-20. I have not heard from John Hollis in Memphis, Tenn. yet - he travels a lot.

I would love to have whatever you have on the Hollis line - there are gaps in our line. I shall be happy to pay you for the copies ^{and} postage, the never know where or in what direction we will find that clue that binds so many things together.

I have come to a dead end on my great great grandfather Porter A. Davis. He was born in Ga. I have been unable to find the county. He was born the 1 - Aug 1792 died on 14 Jan 1869. Is buried in the Coffeeville Cemetery Yazobusha County Miss. I keep digging but so far - nothing.

Getting back to Jesse Hollis in Miss. Thomas Hollis moved with his family to Chickasaw County Miss in 1842. Their youngest son Alexander Hollis was born there in 1843. So, the elder Jesse of 1820 Tenn. - must have come thru Miss. on his way to Tex. before this time ^{and} I have not checked the census earlier than 1850. I was hunting the Davis line ^{and} found both Davis & Hollis - tho' a cousin from Vardaman, Miss. has sent me all the other details on the Hollis family. But I am anxious to know the son's name of our Jesse Hollis who came to Miss. to claim his father's share ^{of} the estate of his Uncle Alexander. There are quite a few Hollises in the S.A. phone book. San Antonio takes in the whole of Bexar County ^{and} all the small towns around - most of ^{whom} work in S.A. that includes over a million people now ^{and} it is just too darn big. all the freeways were out dated before they were finished.

In reading over your letter I imagine our Jesse Hollis came to Texas because of his Uncle being here. Especially, perhaps, because of his Uncle Jesse for whom he was named. Tho' some of my great grandpa's sons were named for his father & his brothers & some were named for

3. my great grandmother's brothers as well. And, all those names have come down in some way among their children & grand-children.

On the day I received your letter I also received a letter from another lady who lives in Perrine, Fla. She is interested in the Armstrong line (my great great grandma Prudence Armstrong Hollis) also, re: Davis line in Ala who had a connection to the ~~Loss & Hargre~~ Gerrard family who married into the John Davis line from Orange Co. Va. I have a book on this Davis line - but have no connection with our Davis line so far as I can find. But I can send her quite a bit on that line of Davis's. As well as the Armstrongs who were also from Va.

Now, I really appreciate your letter & many thanks. Would also be grateful for the information you can send on the Hollis line.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Sharp Hocker

INFORMATION ON THE HOLLIS FAMILY

MY GRANDFATHER HENRY STRICKLAND CAME FROM JONES, HARRY AND WAYNE COUNTIES IN MISS.
THERE IS A HOLLIS CREEK IN WAYNE CO. MISS.
SO WHEN I FOUND THE DEED FROM DAVID
HOLLIS TO L. A. ADAMS I THOUGHT MAYBE THEY KNEW EACH OTHER IN MISS. I DO NOT KNOW
HOW HOLLIS CREEK GOT ITS NAME BUT I
